

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

PRESS AND TRIBUNE
...
PRESS AND TRIBUNE
...
PRESS AND TRIBUNE
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...
CHICAGO, BURLINGTON & NORTH PACIFIC RAILROAD
...

100

[illegible]

Press & Tribune

CHICAGO

REISTRATION OF MARRIAGE PAPERS

We are advised, through private sources from Washington, that J. P. Fine, U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of Illinois has received his resignation to the President.

It is rumored, that Mr. Fine has fallen foul in his accounts, and offered to resign because that reason; claiming, however, that the President had grown tired of the expense of maintaining the Buchanans, even in this city. A number of persons are after Mr. F.'s old shoes, and the contest is said to be very exciting by the time they are submitted before the senator.

We are informed that the chances are against it between Ex-Marshal Jewell and Ex-consolidator

INDICTMENTS UNDER THE FUGITIVE SLAVE LAW.

At the fourth session of the Grand Jury of the U. S. District Court, in this city, eight indictments of Ottaway, La Salle County, were issued for alleged violation of the Fugitive Slave Law, in the rescue of the man Jim, at Ottaway, in October last. The indictments were the president charged with the offense.

| | |
|----------------|-------------------|
| Joseph Stettin | Joe Stettin |
| C. Campbell | J. Hoessak |
| S. F. Smith | W. W. Smith |
| C. B. King | E. W. Chamberlain |

The jury, composed of eleven Democrats and five Republicans, were nearly unanimous in reference to the charges of the persons above named, while on the cases of two of the others, the vote was seven for one against indictment—a party division. On the last case, the jury, after a long conference, were unable to reach a verdict, ex parte evidence upon which the indictment was found; but from the fact that it was the cases it was manifestly to the Republicans the members of the jury, though enough to the Democrats, we learn that Mr. Daniel, the attorney for the defense, in the proceedings, did not win so greatly for his party friends as the Administration at Washington, but was of more moderate influence.

We learned last evening from a gentleman who left Ottawa on the afternoon train, that the Toronto Mail had been ordered their information to go to jail, instead of giving him the subject had created not a little excitement.

RETIRED SENATOR DEPARTS.

Among the passengers by the Arago which arrived at New York last evening was Senator Seymour.

An Explanation.

In alluding to the fact that the telegraph men of the country were closed on Monday last, we made use of the phrase "the trunk." It is proper for us to say since there has been some misunderstanding as to our meaning.

that the message is not bad news, but only an equivalent for a battery of letters. Certainly, so far as the employees of the Chicago telegraph office are concerned, any other interpretation would be grossly unjust. Superintendent, Mr. Sweet, is the last man who would be likely to have persons in his employ who would be guilty of any gross impairment of conduct.

The Congressional Herald.—We are glad to hear that the organ of the Congressionalists of the West shows in its new dress and improved appearance, substantially improved property. It has long been one of the ablest organs of the Western telegraph journals, and we are happy to hear that ability and industry are properly represented in the Congressionalists, to whom is primarily appeals for support.

Abolition of Slavery in Nebraska.—A motion to reconsider the vote by which the bill for the abolition of slavery in Nebraska was previously postponed, came up in the Nebraska Council on the 12th, and was voted down by Democrats by the aid of the Freeing office vote—yeas 7, nays 7.

Letter from Ottawa.

The Illinois State

debate on the Bible question. The report of the committee was adopted—General Motter, The Col lege of Arts and Sciences, and the following resolutions were adopted:—Resolved that the Special Correspondent of the Press and Tribune Orville Wadsworth Motter, be invited to attend the meeting and to act as the opening of the Illinois Teachers Convention here. The third day was commenced at 10 o'clock. The proceedings of the afternoon yesterday, continued in the forenoon today, and highly interesting. A report from the session on the Bible in Schools, was presented by Bro. of Tanana, and was spirited and ably sustained. The report was excellently conducted ably. The report of the ground that the teacher should follow fast rule in the matter, being the necessities and circumstances of the household where he taught. Mr. Atherton of Chicago, proposed a resolution that the committee be authorized to send the resolution, was adopted, recom ending the Bible be read in the schools with vigor or economy.
 Last evening, Rev. Dr. Deane of Chicago delivered a lecture on the Association and its economy of silence. The lecture was and the lecture drew upon the best talent of the city, and elicited its powers.
 able, eloquent, and interesting.
 This morning, the second day of the Con tention, has been largely occupied with miscellaneous business. The report of the committee on the Bible question, was presented and adopted. The report of the committee on the Association and its economy of silence, was presented and adopted. The report of the committee on the Association and its economy of silence, was presented and adopted.

has been organized from among the members of the Association, which subsequently secured a large place of business. The other meeting forenoon was a debate on the Chicago Free School, called up by the report of the Reform School, on the subject of reforming the matter was handled by several speakers, and was pretty plainly shown that the Chicago Reform School was not an entire success, that it lacked the elements of government, and, in fact, was a failure.

The Convention, as anticipated, is a long one. Our State may be present. A speaker, at 1 o'clock, in the grand hall of the North Central and Lake Island Railroads, is holding the usual courtesy of reform plans, restricted the attendance, suitable to be a disappointment to many countries, are only interested in the matter as a contented themselves, but on the other hand, I characterize this as a very good procedure to the last, when they were made, by the liberal course and the attendance of from sixty to one hundred country officials by this course. Next, the teachers must locate their place in a line of road where provision was made, have been made.

Very excellent course was given by Miss C. C. Gregory, assistant principal of the Normal, Carroll county, and by the Normal, of Fayette.

The good people of Ottawa have been

[illegible]